

Please do not change the rules regulating Broadcast Ownership. Expanding ownership will enable monopoly ownership and hurt the very foundation of our democracy which depends on a free and open press and an enlightened electorate. If anything you should restrict further ownership by large corporations and allow more access to individuals and small communities that represent a cross section of the American public. Sincerely, John Raphael